Local Business Man Is Married Sunday Morn.

The marriage of George Morgan to Miss Marie Scheibler of Los Angeles was solemnized at a pretty and impressive ceremony at the Baptist church, 49th and Figueroa streets, Los Angeles, Sunday morning, April 12, with Rev. George Erickson officiating.

The bride was becomingly dressed in a printed chiffon gown with picture hat and contrasting accessories and wore a corsage of white gardenias and lily of the valley. She was attended by Miss Erna Bayerstorfer of Los Angeles, who wore a beige ensemble and corsage of roses and sweet peas.

Immediately following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Morgan left for a honeymoon trip to Washington, stopping en route at Yosemite. Upon their return they will make their home in Torrance. Morgan is associated with Two Macks Electric Company and is a son of Mrs. J. B. McComiskey, 2119 Arlington avenue.

W. B. A. OBSERVE MEMBERS' BIRTHDAYS

The regular routine of the W. B. A. meeting Tuesday night at the Woman's club house was broken by a little celebration staged in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Nettie Steinhorber and Mrs. Hurum Reeve. Mrs. Hattie Shugg gave a very interesting, detailed report of the state rally held at Long Beach.

TUESDAY CLUB ENJOYS SUPPER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess were hosts Tuesday evening when they entertained at their home on Arlington avenue. A pot luck supper was served with each guest bringing a covered dish. Bridge furnished the diversion of the evening, honors for ladies' high score being awarded to Mrs. J. O. Moore, second to Mrs. Lillian Shriner and consolation to Mrs. Fred Knudson. Mr. Fess won high score for men. Dr. Fossum, second, and Mr. Dennis, consolation. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. A. Shriner of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. John Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. W. West, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. F. Sidebotham, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Knudson, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fordice, Mr. and Mrs. J. Dolton, Mrs. May McKinley, Mrs. Paul Kasper and Dr. and Mrs. Fossum.

O. E. S. NOTES

Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, held their regular meeting Thursday evening. Following the business session a delightful program was enjoyed. Misses Dolores and Evelyn Henke characted dances in costume and readings. Ernest Holmes and his brother, John Holmes, gave several violin numbers. E. N. Tomkins entertained with some old fashioned jig numbers. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the program.

A dance and bridge party will be held at the Masonic Temple Friday evening, April 17, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Huddleston will have charge of the dance and Mrs. W. West will manage the bridge group. Following the bridge everyone is invited to attend the dance in the banquet room. The bridge tally charge will admit guests to the dance without further cost.

ROTARY ANNS MEET

Lovely bowls of larkspur and fern attractively decorated the Levy home on El Prado when Mrs. Sam Levy and Mrs. N. A. Leake entertained the Rotary-Anns Tuesday evening. Following a short business meeting, bridge furnished diversion. Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. D. A. Baxter and consolation to Mrs. Len Murray. Present were Mesdames Baxter, Bilger, Briney, Buxton, Guttenfelder, Kelsey, Lancaster, Leake, Murray, Parks, Peckham, Post, Sammons, Wood and Whyte.

CATHOLIC LADIES TO GIVE BRIDGE

The April Guild of the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society will give a bridge and 500 party at Torrance Woman's club Thursday evening, April 23, at 8 o'clock. Mrs. T. D. McNeil and her committee will have charge of arrangements.

PHILTHEAS TO ATTEND OUT-OF-TOWN MEETING

Members of the Philtheas will meet today, Thursday, April 16, at M. E. church to motor to the home of Miss Rohndt, 1306 West 54th street, Los Angeles, for their regular pot luck dinner and Bible study hour to be followed by a social evening.

"BROTHERS' NIGHT" IS HELD BY EASTERN STAR

"Brothers' Night," annually observed by the Order of the Eastern Star, was held last Thursday evening at the Masonic temple. At the conclusion of the regular Eastern Star chapter meeting a short program of readings, music and dances was given, followed by refreshments served by the brothers.

Members and visitors were seated at long tables in the banquet room where they enjoyed delicious and generous servings of strawberry short cake and coffee.

TRIPLE T. ENJOY NOVEL DANCING PARTY

A very successful dancing party was enjoyed by members of the Triple T. when Dr. and Mrs. R. F. Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burdington and Douglas Collins were hosts last Friday evening at the American Legion club house. An interesting feature of the party was the presentation of comic prizes to C. T. Rippy, who received a prize for being the best waltzer; to D. A. "Spud" Murphy for the best fox trot, and to Dr. Bingham for posture.

Needless to say the recipients questioned the wisdom of the donors. Following the intermission, partners were chosen by matching picture puzzles. The next dance will be held at the club house Friday, May 15, with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder and Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey in charge of arrangements.

ALUMNI DANCE TO BE GIVEN

Torrance High Alumni Association will give a dance at Torrance Woman's club Friday, April 24. Everyone is invited. For information call Mary Vonderahe, 64.

RELIEF CORPS CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

General C. E. Adams Corps, No. 135, G. A. R. of Hawthorne, celebrated with an anniversary party last Friday. District president Grace B. Willbra was present and gave a very interesting talk. Mrs. Charles Kelton, who was a charter member of the organization, read the history of the corps.

MRS. MCBRIDE IS HOSTESS TO FRIENDS

On Wednesday evening, April 8, Mrs. Hazel McBride entertained a small group of friends at her home at 1308 Beech street, in honor of Miss Margaret Gensler.

Bridge, music and dancing were the diversions of the evening. Guests included Miss Gensler, Mrs. Thelma Corwin, Miss Esther Maxwell, Miss Margaret Shell, Mrs. Faye Howard, Miss Grace Biggs, Miss Caroline Stroh and Miss Lute Fraser.

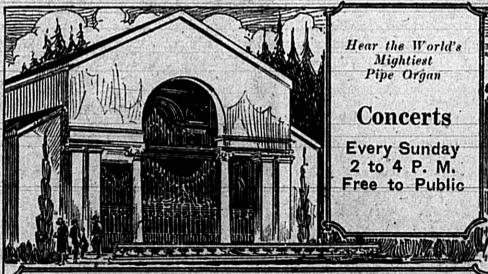

American Legion Auxiliary News

When the regular group of ladies left for Sawtelle from the American Legion club house Tuesday afternoon they took with them 45 dozen home-made cookies and several boxes of candy and cigarettes for the boys. They plan to supply the boys with greeting cards for Mother's Day.

Tuesday evening, April 21, will be regular meeting of the Auxiliary. Mrs. L. G. Barkdull will have charge of the program which promises to be very entertaining. Mrs. R. J. Delinger requests all quilt blocks to be sent in by that date whether or not they have been finished.

MOUNTAIN VIEWS SHOWN

A large number of local residents attended the exhibit of 50 large photographs of mountain scenery all over the world held at the High school Tuesday afternoon and evening. The pictures were loaned the art department by the Sierra Club of California and proved most interesting.

KIWANIANS TO SAN PEDRO FOR ANNUAL PROGRAM

All the members of the Torrance Kiwanis club will join the San Pedro service club on Monday evening, May 4, to observe "Kiwanis Night"—an international celebration simultaneously with the opening of the annual convention in Miami, Florida. The president's message will be read at every club at precisely the same time as he gives it at the big gathering of Kiwanians.

Woman's Club Notes

Torrance Woman's club will give a bridge party at their club house Thursday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock. Everyone is invited. An invitation has been extended to the Torrance Woman's club to attend an art exhibit and tea on Tuesday, April 21, given by the Palos Verdes Woman's club.

Wednesday was regular business meeting day at Torrance Woman's club. Bible study class was conducted from 1:30 to 2 p. m. Paul Zerolin, of California Title Company, spoke in an extremely interesting manner of wills and trusts. Many questions were asked by the audience and a great many points were cleared up. Final election of officers was held from 12 noon to 2 p. m. Those elected were: Mrs. C. T. Rippy, treasurer; Mrs. Archer Lewis, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Isabel Henderson, auditor; Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mrs. Len Murray and Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, directors.

The district convention of Federation of Women's clubs was held at Long Beach Ebell Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, with Mrs. Collins and Mrs. Barkdull delegates, and Mrs. Edmonds and Mrs. Vonderahe as alternates. Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Meiner and Mrs. Rippy attended as guests. A bridge party will be given tonight at the club house. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be secured at the door.

When a meal must be ready...Quick!

then you'll appreciate the unequalled cooking speed of the New Gas Ranges

WHEN THE FAMILY comes trooping in for breakfast, a wholesome, hot meal can be ready... even if you have overslept a little. If an afternoon engagement keeps you out until five-thirty, a well-cooked dinner can be on the table at the stroke of six.

Faster cooking is one of the advantages of the new ranges. Then there is the Lorain Oven Heat Regulator which takes trustworthy charge of the cooking of an entire meal. The beauty and cleanliness of these new gas ranges will win you, too.

And of course natural gas is more economical. A meal can be cooked for as little as one-quarter of a cent a person.
